$10,000 OR HIS LIFE

Wealthy Man and Sister Threatened With Death.

"THE STRONG FORTY-FIVE."

Member of an Organization Bearing Above Title Sends Lancaster, Pa., Man a Letter Demanding Sum of Money.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 3.—"Surrender $10,000, or be murdered along with your sister," was the substance of a letter received by Charles B. Grubb, one of Lancaster's wealthiest men.

It was first thought to be a joke, and no attention was paid to it until Thursday, when it was sent to Postmaster Miller. He at once expressed the belief that he knew the writing and the police are now hunting for the writer suspected as they regard the threat as serious.

The writer said that he had been chosen by lot as a member of an organization "the strong forty-two," to secure from Grubb $10,000, or to take his life and that of his sister, Miss Daisy B. Grubb, of Philadelphia. It was directed that the money be placed beneath a water trough on East Orange street beyond the quarryville railroad by 9 o'clock Wednesday night. The letter was at first regarded as a joke as the point indicated was not watched to see if any person went after the money demanded.

DUAL DEATH [illegible].

One Falls Lifeless Beside the Corpse of the Other.

Americus, Ga., Aug. 3.—The death of Arnold Godwin, and his brother, Bramwell Godwin, occurring simultaneously Thursday morning, was a most remarkable occurrence and has shocked Americus. Both were prominent and prosperous planters residing upon adjoining plantations near Americus.

Arnold Godwin returned Wednesday from New York in excellent health, apparently having enjoyed three weeks there. Thursday upon rising from his bed he fell upon the floor dead from heart failure. Telephone messages summoned his brother, Bramwell Godwin, a mile distant. He hurried to the scene, and upon beholding the corpse of his brother, fell dead beside it.

It is reported that when Bramwell Godwin was told of his brother's demise he remarked to his informer that both would be buried together.

The Godwins were among the most influential citizens of Sumter county, and their dual death from heart trouble has profoundly shocked the city.

CAUCUS NAMES JOHNSTON.

Nominated for Both Short and Long Terms.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 3.—For the second time this session the legislature nominated for election to the United States senate a man to succeed a dead senator, that honor falling to Joseph F. Johnston, who will follow for the long and short terms of Senator Pettus, covering the time to 1815.

Though the nomination was by democratic caucus it amounts to election as there are only two other than democrats in the entire assembly.

Gun Against Mowing Blade.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Aug. 3.—Renner Ashbrook and Quarrel Ellis and Alex Ashbrook and James Dunning with a mowing blade. Dunning, who was returning from hunting, fired two loads of squirrel shot into Ashbrooke's breast, killing him instantly. Both are prominent planters. Dunning surrendered.

Five Persons Drowned.

Ottumawa, Iowa, Aug. 3.—Five people were drowned Thursday night by the capsizing of a launch in the Des Moines river, near this city. The drowned are William H. Powell, wife and son, Hallie, Mrs. J. F. Stevens and baby. The party had started out on a pleasure trip.

DEATHS IN COAL MINES.

More Than One Thousand Killed Last Year in Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Aug. 3.—More than one thousand persons were killed last year in the coal mines of Pennsylvania, according to a report issued today by James Ford Rhodes, chief of the bureau of mines.

The statistics show that of the persons killed [illegible] were the result of violations of [illegible] 600 on account of [illegible] unavoidable, and 2 [illegible] from [illegible] for which responsibility could not be fixed.

Of the 477 killed [illegible] mines, 364 victims [illegible] coal cars, [illegible] loss of [illegible] and 112 unavoidable, and [illegible] by accidents for which responsibility could not be placed.

The chief says that the figures show that two-thirds of the accidents resulted from the victim's own carelessness and the resulting third may be taken as a fair percentage of accidents to miners.

It seems impossible to adopt any method, he said, either by legislative enactment or by special rules, that will tend to lessen the loss of life among the mine workers.

HAZERS INJURE McGHEE.

University of the South Gets Into the Limelight.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 3.—Young Gordon McGhee, of this city, was severely injured by hazers at the University of the South, according to his story, and he has left the school and returned to his home in this city.

He was to be initiated into a Greek letter society, and as a result of the pranks played on him, he is suffering with a badly bruised chest and had three teeth driven into his chest, severing the nerves.

A called meeting of the Montgomery alumni chapter of the fraternity was held Thursday and it was decided to demand a rigid investigation. The matter will be taken up with the head officers of the fraternity and the trustees of the institution.

Death Came in Curious Way.

New York, Aug. 3.—George W. Weisner, an employe of the New York and New Jersey Telephone company, came by his death in a curious way at Mineola, L. I. He was almost instantly killed by an electric shock, the current being borne along a measuring tape made of light cloth and coated with a sort of shellac, which an assistant accidentaly dropped over a high power wire.

Lightning Tore Off Shoes.

Andersonville, Ga., Aug. 3.—During a heavy thunder storm lightning entered the house of Charles Wright, who lives four miles from this place tearing a shoe off the foot of Mrs. Wright and cutting a gash about three-fourths of an inch in length between the large and second toe. A shoe was also torn from the foot of one of Mr. Wright's daughters, doing her no other damage, however, except badly frightening her.

Wants to Sell Concessions.

Valparaiso, Chile, Aug. 3.—The Chilean syndicate which owns valuable concessions to construct the Great Arica-LaPlaz railroad, but desisted from proceeding with the work for want of funds, is now trying to sell the concessions. An English syndicate is negotiating for them. The Chilean government is determined to hasten the work, and will subscribe to fresh concessions if necessary.

Lipton Will Challenge Again.

New York, Aug. 3.—A cable from Queenstown, Sir Thomas Lipton, Chas. Russell, son of the late Lord Russell, Lord Rosebery, and a prominent British yachtsman, is on his way to America to open negotiations with the New York Yacht club of Sir Thomas Lipton upon the latter's challenging for an America's cup race next year.

Fire Loss of $110,000.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 3.—Fire Friday caused a loss of $110,000 in the building occupied by the Burgess Electric company, Moen & Co., and the Christie Lithographing company on West First street. The origin of the fire is not known.

AN ATROCIOUS CRIME

Killing of Little Katie Tietschler Shocked New York.

CHOKED WITH HAIR RIBBON

Seeming Inability of the Police to Check Crime Wave Creates a State of Fear Among Hundreds of Families.

New York, Aug. 3.—The murder of little 8-year-old Katie Tietschler, who was choked to death with her own hair ribbon and her body mutilated by the slayer's last, in a dark cellar on First avenue, has called forth every effort of the whole police department to find the fiend who has been satisfying his murderous appetite in the strangling and hacking to bits of his victims.

Unlike the Whitechapel Jack the Ripper, the New York slayer picks out his victims among children as well as women.

The killing of the Tietschler child is the most atrocious in the city criminal history.

Two men and a woman are being held in custody on suspicion that they might know something of the girl's death, the woman, Anna Messner, was arraigned in the Night court and held without bail for the coroner. She was taken to the police headquarters and was closely questioned by detectives. She admitted that she knew Getiano Rappelone, the cobbler, and his employe, Guiseppe Bonfanta, both of whom are being detained by the police. She said she had been living for several days at the house where the child's body was found. Before that she resided with the Tietschler family, but Karl Tietschler recently ordered her to leave the house.

The seeming inability of the police to check the wave of crime which is spending itself unchecked on the killing and spoliation of women and children has created a state of fear among hundreds of families on the East Side where the Tietschler crime was committed, and in other parts of the city also.

Police Commissioner Bingham says that the present police force is inadequate to properly police the city, but that everything possible is being done by the force under his direction.

Dogs Put on Trail.

Athens, Ga., Aug. 3.—Two negroes were discovered in a room of two young ladies attending the summer school in Candler hall early Thursday morning. The room was on the first floor of the building. At 4 o'clock one of the ladies was awakened by seeing a negro at the foot of her bed. She screamed, as did the other lady, when one negro said: "This is no place for us," and ran out of the building. In a few minutes several men with guns and pistols were on the scene, but no trace of the negroes could be found. The county dogs were obtained, but could not get a trail.

Fate of Famous Engine.

Atlanta, Aug. 3.—The Texas, that locomotive which finally overhauled the General in its [illegible] flight with the Andrews raiders in 62, one of the most dramatic and sensationally thrilling events of the war between the states, is now in the Western and Atlantic yards at the foot of Alabama street, awaiting a [illegible] from Atlanta junk men, who will beat it into pieces and [illegible] for that purpose. The General, the [illegible] and which the [illegible] stands upon a [illegible] the Union depot at Chattanooga.

Ticket Agent Suicides.

Steubenville, O., Aug. 3.—Edward L. Persat, [illegible] agent for the Cleveland [illegible] road for 20 years, committed suicide Thursday night. [illegible] himself Persat was several [illegible] under the left knee. Persat had a carbuncle on the neck for [illegible] suffering from it caused him to [illegible] of recovery.

UNION DECREED VALID.

Opinion Delivered in Presbyterian Church Case.

Fayetteville, Tenn., Aug. 3.—In his opinion delivered here in the Presbyterian church case between the unionists and the anti-unionists, involving the right of possession in the property of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Chancellor Walter Bearden held that the "union" was valid, and in substantial conformity to the church constitution, but decreed that under the deeds conveying the property to the trustees of the several churches the bill of the "unionists" asking for exclusive possession in the name of the United church, must be dismissed and the complainants taxed with the costs. The cost of taking their proof was taxed to the "anti-unionists" and both sides appealed.

The court refused to enter into the merits of the various ecclesiastical questions, saying that the question of the wisdom or unwisdom of the creedal statements or whether the doctrinal agreement warranted union or not were matters for ecclesiastical cognizance, and the court would not attempt to review or revise them.

Pending appeal the court decreed that an agreement by which the congregations of the several churches alternate in the use of the property should remain in effect subject to modification by mutual consent of the parties.

THIS CASE UNPRECEDENTED.

Father Killed His Daughter Because She Was So Ugly.

Vienna, Aug. 3.—A Hungarian peasant at Neusando, charged with murdering his 18-year-old daughter, admitted the crime, but pleaded that she was so ugly that he had no chance of getting her married.

The jury decided that this plea established extenuating circumstances and brought in a verdict of manslaughter. The court accepted this, and sentenced the prisoner to six years.

Explosion Injures Students

Gainesville, Ga., Aug. 3.—A premature explosion of dynamite at the Barlow gold mines, situated in Lumpkin county, just across the Hall county line, fatally injured Henry Welchel, aged 20 years, and seriously hurt Welton Brackett, both being students of the North Georgia Agricultural college, of Dahlonega. Both of the students were doing experimental mining work in pursuance of their studies, this being the regular summer work required of students in this department of Dahlonega.

Supplies for Philippine Army.

San Francisco, Aug. 3.—Large quantities of merchandise, ammunition and supplies of every description for use of the army in the Philippines are being forwarded to the islands. Within the next few dayys four transports, Fort Logan, Warren, Crook and Buford, will sail for their destination loaded to their full capacity with military stores. In addition, they will carry 3,000 men of the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-ninth infantry and casuals, besides a number of prominent officers.

Cause of Race Suicide.

Chatauqua, N. Y., Aug. 3.—John Graham Brooks, author, socialist, of Boston, believes the cost of living to be the cause of race suicide, according to an address he made at the Chautauqua assembly. "I hesitate to bring up the question of race suicide," he said, "but it is a dismal fact that the increased expense of [illegible] children in cities where the poorer [illegible] are compelled to [illegible] largely responsible for the [illegible] birth rate."

Dies at Age of 107.

New York, Aug. 3.—Mrs. Catherine Gilligan, at the age of 107 years and four months, is dead at her home in the Bronx. She had lived in New York thirty-five years, coming here from Ireland at the age of 72 to join her eight children. Mrs. Gilligan ascribed her longevity to her habit of eating onions with every meal and her refusal to worry about anything. She never tasted medicine

TO MAKE SPEED TEST

Unusual Interest In Trial Trip of Battleship Connecticut.

TAKES PLACE ON AUGUST 8

This Is the First Battleship of the Farst Class Built by the Government Instead of Contractors, Hence the Interest.

New York, Aug. 3.—Unusual interest attaches to the trial of the battleship Connecticut, which will be made over the Rockland, Me., course on August 8. Rear Admiral R. D. Evans will be aboard the Connecticut during her speed test.

The fact that the Connecticut is the first battleship of the first class built by the government instead of by contractors, explains the exceptional public interest in her.

Naval men expect to obtain valuable information from a comparison of the Connecticut with the Louisiana. The keels of both ships were laid at the same time, the former's by the government at the Brooklyn navy yard, and the latter's by contractors.

It is believed the Connecticut will demonstrate the government's ability to produce battleships of the first-class that are in all points equal to those built by the contract system.

The battleship Connecticut left the Brooklyn navy yard on Friday for Hampton Roads, where she will take on 1,000 tons of selected coal. She will then go to Rockland for the trial trip.

RICHARDSON WITHDRAWS.

Denver Lawyer Says He Will Not Work with Clarence Darrow.

Denver, Colorado, Aug. 3.—The News says that Attorney E. F. Richardson, of Denver, who was one of W. D. Haywood's counsel in the famous trial at Boise, Idaho, has withdrawn from any further connection with the defense of officials and others of the Western Federation of Miners in cases now pending before the Idaho courts. He is quoted as saying that he will not work with Clarence Darrow, the Chicago lawyer associated with him in the case as lawyer.

"The whole substance of the matter is, that I cannot endure Darrow's methods," said Richardson. "I do not sanction socialism, at least not when it is coupled with the trying of a legal suit, and especially when that case is a murder case and means a man's life."

FISH AND HARRIMAN QUARREL.

Both Claim They Own More Stock Than Other in Illinois Central.

New York, Aug. 3.—E. H. Harriman and Stuyvesant Fish, whom Mr. Harriman ousted from the presidency of the Illinois Central, differ over the ownership of the stock of the road.

The trouble arose over a statement given out by Mr. Fish, announcing his position at the next annual meeting of the Illinois stockholders in which he said Mr. Harriman owned only 150 shares of Illinois Central stock against 12,452 held by himself. When this statement was shown to Mr. Harriman, he said:

"I have been the largest stockholder in Illinois Central ever since I have been in the company and Mr. Fish knows it."

When Mr. Fish was informed of Mr. Harriman's statement, said the figures he had given were taken from the books of the company and were correct.

Clinton, Ill., Aug. 3.—The grand jury which has been investigating into the death of Mrs. Pet Magill, the first wife of Frank Magill, who, with his second wife, is in jail here, having been brought back from California to answer to the charge of having caused the death of Mrs. Pet Magill, [illegible] indictment against [illegible] indictment against Mrs. [illegible] Magill. The indictments are exactly alike, each [illegible] counts.

GOVERNOR'S VICTORY IN NORTH CAROLINA

Is Highly Satisfactory to Democratic Leaders In Congress.

SENATOR BACON ON PRESIDENCY

He Has All That Is Necessary for a Southern Man to Secure Nomination As to Aggressive Candidacy—Other Leaders Not So Optimistic.

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., Aug 3.—As set forth in the correspondence last week the North Carolina conflict with the railroads is still the paramount political issue. The victory of Governor Glenn in forcing the railroads to obey the State law reducing rates until the legal questions involved have been decided by the supreme court is the most satisfactory outcome to the trouble that has occurred since railroad control has been attempted. The greatest satisfaction is expressed by Democrats that a Democratic Governor showed the ability and courage to compel obedience to the law by imprisoning the lawbreakers in spite of the efforts of the corporation lawyers and attorneys, and the aid of a Federal judge. It should be remembered that the issue in the North Carolina case was similar to that contained in the Democratic rate bill now pending in the United States Senate, namely that a reduction of rates should be effective until declared by the courts unconstitutional or confiscatory.

The discussion of the most available Presidential candidate for the Democracy to nominate has received a fresh impetus this week by the arrival in Washington of Senator Bacon of Georgia. He declared himself favorable to a Southern man for President, mentioning Senators Daniel, Culberson, Clarke and Gray, and dozens of others who could be named. "All of us," declared Senator Bacon, "by for one of them to step out and declare himself a candidate, and the nomination will be his." Other Democratic leaders do not view the nomination of a Southern man with that optimistic complacency of Senator Bacon; they do not believe that the Democratic National Convention will nominate a man from a Southern State unless he is acceptable to the delegates from the close contested Northern States.

It is pointed out that during the last two years most of the Eastern Democratic criticism of Mr. Bryan has been based upon his extreme views on financial, economic and political questions. They have failed (and in many instances, it would seem, intentionally) to recognize the distinction between Mr. Bryan's academical views and those which he estimates as belonging in the realm of practical politics. The great financial issue on which his first battle was fought he now admits is a settled question in consequence of the enormous increase in the volume of gold and inflation of the currency, and therefore no longer debated, although he still contends that great as has been the prosperity during that time in which he predicted poverty and distress, the prosperity would have been more general had the doctrines for which he contended been favored by popular vote. Within the last two months he has stated to Mr. Bourke Cockran that the initiative and referendum were not necessarily articles of Democratic faith at this moment, and now in The Commoner he has so seriously modified his doctrines of Government ownership as to put it into the category of academical things and make it inoffensive even to railroad owning Democrats. How, under these circumstances, the Wall Street element in the Democratic party can continue to oppose him is not plain, unless they admit that the fearless freedom of his character, his utterances and his uncontrollability are the real elements in their objections to him. Mr. Bryan's retreat in the matter of Government ownership will go very far to check the criticism in the South, whatever effect it may have upon the Hearst, or so-called conservative elements, in the Democratic ranks.

MR. ROGERS' CONDITION.

He Has Gone to Atlanta, Where Operation Will be Made.

Friends of Rev. S. B. Rogers, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, will be pained to learn that he is still suffering, and that he will be taken to Atlanta in a few days, where a surgical operation will be performed.

Mr. Rogers, with his family of a wife and three or four children, left the city about three months ago, the church having given him a vacation of several months. He is regarded as one of the most loyal and faithful ministers in the State, and those who knew of his devotion to his church and his friends were glad to grant the vacation, with the hope that his health would be improved.

After leaving Gainesville Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and children proceeded to Tallahassee, where they remained for some time. Mrs. Rogers and children remained there as guests of relatives, when the husband proceeded to Georgia, where he has been endeavoring to regain his health ever since.

It is to be regretted generally that Mr. Rogers has been unable to recuperate properly in the various places he has visited in Georgia, but his friends hope that he will yet regain his health and return to Gainesville in condition to do his work well and efficiently.

Hays in North Carolina.

Rev. Thos. P. Hay has written from Asheville, N. C., to the effect that he and his family have arrived safely arrived at that resort, and that they are having a fine time there.

Dr. Hay requests that The Sun be sent to his address at 101 Pine street, Asheville, as he says he cannot afford to do without the paper. His friends may write him at the above address. They were entertaining an idea of spending a part of their vacation at Montreat, but the atmosphere and surroundings at Asheville are so delightful that they have decided to spend the vacation there.

WINDSOR ITEMS

Some Good Suggestions Regarding Construction of Hard Roads.

Windsor, Aug. —The [illegible] this community have [illegible] the past week.

Crops will be good in the Windsor neighborhood this year. Cotton is looking very fine and corn will be a fair crop.

Mrs. E. T. Finaren accompanied by her father, Mr. H. Mann, have gone to Chicago to spend the summer.

Miss Maggie Tomlin is spending the summer with her sister in Lynchburg, Va.

Rob Adkins seems to be active in Windsor.

H. Spires has recently bought of the land here belonging to the late E. T. Finaren of Rochelle.

O. R. Green has lately installed a shingle mill which promises to do a good business.

The people of Windsor are very much pleased with the excellent work the county is doing on the road east from Gainesville and they are united in desiring the good work to continue.

It seems to be the general impression that our County Commissioners are going to order the work discontinued on the road to Prairie Creek at the board meeting this month. We earnestly hope our honorable board of commissioners will reconsider this intention and continue the work east until the road is completed as far as Prairie Creek bridge at the very least. There are many reasons why the work should progress—among them we may mention the following:

1st. As the county is going to put a new steel bridge over Prairie Creek it would seem fitting to complete the road to the new bridge.

2nd. The teams and men are now on this side of the work and why not stay just a little longer and finish it to a definite point?

3rd. The clay pits are now all open, the field in which one of them is located is fenced off and the opening made, so why not make use of it while the material is given to the county gratis and all the work of getting ready is done?

4th. It has been a long time since any construction work has been done on this side of the county and we naturally feel as though we would like the county to spend an equal share of time on this side of Gainesville.

5th. This road leading east from Gainesville is one of the most important in the county in point of the number of people using it. All work done on this road is a help to people living in Rochelle, Hawthorn, Campville, Rex, Melrose and Orange Heights, inasmuch as this is the most direct route for people from these places to Gainesville. In addition to these there is a large number of farmers who live near these places who will be benefited.

6th. All the places are a long drive from Gainesville and so greatly need all the good road they can get.

Now that the people all over the county are in favor of hard roads why would it not be a good plan for our Board of County Commissioners to secure at least four teams and have four crews of men and then let the work proceed simultaneously north, east, south and west? Then all sections of the county would be securing good roads at the same time and no section would feel that they were neglected. Would it not be also much more economical as then all the time and expense of moving from one side of the county to the other would be obviated, and each party would acquire a kind of momentum by becoming perfectly familiar with the class of work they had to do and thus build the road more quickly and at less expense to the county and probably also of a better quality, with more satisfaction to the public?

NEWBERRY PEOPLE ARE ON THE MOVE

Many Excellent Brick Buildings Are Being Erected.

A MODERN NEW ICE FACTORY

Will be Constructed in a Short Time, and Altogether the Building in Newberry is Bound to Prove Profitable to Everyone.

The fire of a few months ago seems to have proved a great benefit to the town of Newberry, which is growing rapidly now, and which claims with a breath of egotism to be the "second best town in the county."

The business men and merchants of Newberry were not to be outdone by the recent fire. They were determined to put their shoulders together, with the result that the town is in much better condition than it ever was, and everything is in better condition from every standpoint.

The people of Newberry are not slow. While many of them lost virtually everything they had in the big fire, those who had lost everything decided the best thing to do was to start over and gain back the prestige which they had earned. They went to work with a vim, with the result that they are today in better condition than ever.

Newberry is yet to be one of the leading towns of the county, because the people will make it so.

The record of Newberry since the fire is thirteen new brick stores, with four more going up, a new ice factory, and other improvements.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Mr. [illegible] W. Pitts and her interest[illegible] daughter, Miss Curtis, have returned [illegible] with [illegible] to return home.

W. P. Birt of Waldo was in the city yesterday. Mr. Birt is proving himself quite a farmer, especially in sweet potatoes. He shipped ten barrels to this city a day or two ago, which were fine and which realized good prices.

Roy Sylvester of Winslow, Ga., formerly of Hague, who has been on a visit to relatives at Hague for the past two days, passed through the city yesterday en route home. His numerous friends here were glad to see him again.

Among the visitors to this city yesterday was Edwin C. C. Price of Williston, a former member of the Board of County Commissioners of that county, and one of the most influential citizens of that section. Mr. Price's numerous friends here were glad to greet him.

On August 9th, 10th and 11th, the round-trip rate will be one fare plus $2 from all points on the Atlantic Coast Line to Hot Springs, Ark. This makes the rate from Jacksonville $25.25. The return limit on these tickets will be August 25th. For Pullman reservation write to Frank C. Boylston, district passenger agent, Atlantic Coast Line, Jacksonville, Fla.

P. M. Padgett of New River, who is a naval stores operator, appears to be extensive in his operations. Mr. Padgett is not only engaged at New River, but owns or controls every naval stores plant between St. Augustine and Daytona. He is an expert when it comes to this avocation, and, being a Gainesville boy, his friends will congratulate him upon his success.

C. W. de LaMartine, deputy collector of revenue of this district, has returned from Ocala, Dunnellon, Cedar Key and other points in the interest of his position. He reports that the people of the sections visited are prosperous, and that there was "little doing" for him. Mr. de LaMartine is a most affable gentleman, a man well versed in every line, and it is a pleasure to talk with him.

G. Towney Kennard of Newberry was in the city yesterday. Mr. Kennard was for many years a resident of Gainesville, but decided to make his headquarters in Newberry about a year ago. He has recently purchased the Swindell interests in the Smith & Swindell stables, and the new firm proposes to push the business for all it is worth. Mr. Kennard is a hustler, and there is no doubt that he will make the livery business a success.

W. L. Hill left yesterday for Daytona Beach, where he will spend a few days with his wife and children. Mrs. Hill is regarded as the champion fisherwoman of the entire beach, having been most successful in all her efforts. While Mrs. J. E. Futch has been the successful one in catching the largest, Mrs. Hill has hooked more than any person on the big Keating pier, which has been a great credit to her. Mrs. Moses Edelstein is so far the second champion, having "pulled in" 118 fish within the past ten days.

A PLEASANT OCCASION.

Miss Maude Tenant Entertains in Honor of Visiting Friend.

Miss Maud Tenant of South Gainesville has as her guest Miss Florence Cork, a popular young lady of Live Oak, who has been here for the past few days, and who has made many friends. On Thursday evening Miss Tenant entertained in honor of her guest. There was a large crowd present, and the evening passed in a manner most enjoyable to the occasion. There was plenty of refreshments, a number of parlor games, and altogether the affair was one which was greatly enjoyed, and one which will be remembered for a long time.

Children in Pain

Never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Now that the prosecuting witness gets fifty dollars where persons are convicted of the illicit sale of whiskey, the "blind tiger" men will probably be more careful as to whom they sell the flammable stuff they have been dispensing. A "wireless" message to The Sun without any date line says it is rumored that Hon. Frank Adams will make the race for Governor. It is claimed that the reason he gave for declining to enter the contest for Senator would not apply to the Governorship, as the duties of the office would require his presence in the State nearly all the time, which he would be in close touch with business conditions.

MAYOR N. C. PETTIT.

The people of Waldo made no mistake in the selection of N. C. Pettit as mayor. There is not a better man among the entire citizenship of Alachua county, and there is no office in the county, or within the gift of the people of Florida, for that matter that he would not fill with credit to himself and honor to the constituency that elected him. He has always been found on the side of Christianity and morality, and has never been derelict in expressing his opinion regarding public questions. He is charitable in dealing with his fellow-men, always lending a helping hand to those in need, and assisting poor unfortunates in their efforts to redeem themselves, rather than kicking them further down hill, as many pretending Christians are wont to do. There is not one who knows N. C. Pettit that cannot truthfully say the world is better for his having came into it. During the writer's twenty-five years' acquaintance with him we have yet to hear an unkind word spoken of him.

Upon his election as mayor Mr. Pettit published the following card to the people of the town, through The Waldo News:

"By an almost unanimous vote you have decided to live in an incorporated town. You have selected seven councilmen and other officers who will be sworn to do their duty.

"In the interest of decency, comfort and health and the best religion on earth (love of fellow-men), they are going to do their duty, and do it now.

"Twenty years ago good women and men, by a singular movement, drove out the last of three saloons, and in doing so helped to strengthen weak men and encourage disheartened women.

"It belongs to you—practically a new generation—to do a greater work, and do it now. Let every true man, woman, boy or girl be now interested in the effort to cleanse, beautify and make healthy our town, once known as the healthiest in the county.

"Your officers elect are going to do their best. They ask your hearty co-operation. To this end, make clean the yards of your homes. Rake and burn. Do not bury the trash and filth. See that you drink pure water, drink it now. Not a family has suffered by using the driven-well water. This cannot be said of those who persist in using water from wells that for years have been supplied with water that has percolated through poisoned soil, made doubly so by the custom of burying human excrement. Lime has been ordered and will be sold at cost."

JEFF BROWNE FOR GOVERNOR.

The Hon. Jefferson B. Browne of Key West, former chairman of the Florida Railroad Commission, has made formal announcement of his candidacy for Governor, so The Sun is informed by a telegram received from the editor of The Key West Daily Citizen. That Mr. Browne was seriously considering entering the race many have been aware for several months, and now that he has broken the ice the partisans of the two B's—Browne and Burr—past and present chairmen of the commission, will line up on their respective sides. It is reported that the feeling existing between these two gentlemen for some time past has been none too cordial, and it is probable that the campaign, so far as they are concerned, will be a warm one.

Jeff Browne is very generally known throughout Florida, and is one of the most affable men in the State. He was president of the Senate in 1891 when such a determined effort was made to defeat Wilkinson Call for re-election to the United States Senate, and but for the fact that the friends of Senator Call had the aid of such a cool-headed and able presiding officer it is probable that he would have been relegated to private life six years earlier than he was. Mr. Browne was also a strong supporter of Senator Call in 1897, when he withdrew from the race and Senator Mallory defeated Col. Chipley.

He is well up in the school of politics and has never been defeated for an office. Col. Browne is exceedingly popular at home, as evidenced by the unanimous vote he received in Key West when he defeated H. E. Day for Railroad Commissioner, and the Island City will come near giving him the same vote for Governor.

The most terrible appeal is always hidden. But the heart is a shrewd detective—it sees beneath disguises.

The Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company of Michigan has established two nurseries at which pine trees are being successfully raised from seeds for the reforestation of the pine barrens of upper Michigan. These pines are ready for transplanting two years after sprouting, and nearly a million are now ready and are being set out on the cutover lands near Deerwood, Alger county. The practice of reforesting denuded timber lands is becoming more prevalent yearly, and should be warmly encouraged, as it is of great economic value, and in addition on a large majority of instances the investment results in a highly satisfactory profit. Every owner of a tract of barren land unfit for cultivation should investigate the subject of reforestation. The Forest Service of the United States will furnish complete data to any inquirer, without charge, upon receipt of the necessary information upon which to proceed.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

COTTON GROWERS MET IN HIGH SPRINGS

Fully Eight Hundred People Were Gathered in That Town.

MANY SPEECHES WERE MADE

Secretary Schell of the State Organization Made a Fine and Practical Talk, Advocating a Stronger and Richer Association.

High Springs, Aug. 3. The 1st was a great day in the annals of High Springs. It was the occasion of a big barbecue given by the Sea Island Cotton Growers' Association of Alachua county. Tom Price of High Springs was chairman of the affair and introduced Capt. T. H. Willard who made the address of welcome. Capt. Willard's well chosen remarks were much appreciated. He was followed by Sim Collins of Columbia county, who made a good talk.

F. G. Schell, secretary of State organization of cotton growers, made a very fine address. He urged the importance of making the association strong, and to take stock in a million dollar stock company to buy up all the floating cotton and hold same until it brings the minimum price named by the association.

A large crowd was present, estimated at about eight hundred people. In the afternoon there was a game of ball between High Springs and Mikesville, resulting in a score of 4 to 2 in favor of Mikesville.

SHOT AT NEGRO.

Allen Haile Would Not Tolerate a Colored Man's Foolishness.

Because he would not tolerate a negro's foolishness Allen Haile, a well-known young man of this city, shot at and may have struck Will Taylor, an employ of Dell & Haile, naval stores operators, at a late hour Saturday afternoon.

From what could be learned it appears that Taylor had gone to work for Dell & Haile, who own a place at Paradise, on Monday, and left his work Thursday, having put in only four days' time. He came to the city Saturday, looked up Mr. Haile at his home, and with a threat said he would "have his money or go to h——." He made several threats to Mr. Haile, which finally resulted in an exhaust of patience and reason, when Mr. Haile went into the house, secured a gun, and fired.

It is not known whether any shots took effect, as the negro made haste from the scene of the shooting, and has not been heard from since.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—SAM H. GWIN, Concord, Ga. For sale by all druggists.

PALATKA PEOPLE PLEASED.

They Thought the Gainesville Boys Were Clever and Well Behaved.

Notwithstanding that the Gainesville baseball team defeated the Palatka boys Thursday afternoon, which is usually a signal for "knocking" from one end or another, the Palatka people are loud in their praise of the excellent work accomplished by our boys as well as the actions of those who made up the team.

The city editor of The Sun was in Palatka Friday for two or three hours, where he had an opportunity to talk to his friends. All of them had the pleasantest things to say regarding the team, and all declared that it was the cleanest, prettiest game they had ever witnessed.

In turn, the Gainesville boys are very complimentary to the Palatka team and the Palatka people in general, whom they declare treated them "like lords."

It is pleasant indeed to dwell together as friends, and in this instance the mingling of the boys was a great pleasure. If Palatka ever comes our way we will endeavor to treat them just as nicely, which will retain the good fellowship now exsiting.

TWO MONTHS IN GANG.

Frank Burger Enticed Labor and Must Pay the Consequences.

Because Frank Burger, colored, insisted on enticing labor from one camp to another on the alleged commission basis, thereby making a "string" on commissions, he was arraigned in Justice Henderson's court at Newberry on Friday, and in default of a fine of $100 and costs was committed to jail to serve out a sentence of sixty days.

Burger was brought to this city and turned over to the sheriff and sent to the mines at Lennon, Deputy Sheriff I. T. Walker having him in charge.

BIDS FOR SEWER LATERALS.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Public Works of the City of Gainesville, Florida, on Thursday, August 8th, 1907, at 3 o'clock p. m. at the office of W. W. Hampton, secretary, for constructing approximately six miles of 4-inch sewer house laterals. Specifications may be obtained on application. A certified check in the sum of $500, made payable to Board of Public Works, must accompany each bid, as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract should the work be awarded to him. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. W. W. HAMPTON,

"JUST FROM GEORGIA"

F. L. S. in Atlanta Constitution

Nuggets from Georgia.

Some people never stop to think that happiness is in the heart of a little child.

There is no good so much to be that the light of friendship may be a star in the night of it.

Every happiness for a dream we should at least thank God that here on earth we have the sweetest dream sometimes.

The Billville Banner.

There is mighty little happiness in this world. And the prospect of the next looks blazing to some of us.

There are some folks who can't understand that the Civil war is over. They are still needing brass buttons and old muskets.

The prospect is now so dry in Georgia that a man won't be able to wet his whistle to pipe a jig tune.

Beyond Him.

"What do you think of the financial question, major?"

"It's ahead of me. The fellow who borrowed my last dollar left town last night."

Says The Whitsett Courier: "A new paper has been started in town. This gives another man a fine chance to fail in business."

The Growlers.

Some folks, when it's rainin'
Have grounds for complainin'
An' some when the weather is dry,
Keep growlin' together
An' wish for wet weather
An' frown at the world an' the sky.

No matter what's sent us,
It's hard to content us—
We growl from the east to the west,
And if six men or seven
Should get into heaven
They'd say they had too much of rest!

It is time to quit going the sorrowful way and to meet the morning on the hills of joy.

Whenever you locate Wisdom it's a good idea for you to take up your residence there, but Wisdom doesn't tarry long in any settlement.

Goodbye!

Goodby, Mister Trouble,
Or if you comin' on,
Take holiday
Along the way
Or wait till light is gone!

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, Better Than Three Doctors.

"Three years ago we had three doctors with our little boy and everything that they could do seemed in vain. At last when all hope seemed to be gone we began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a few hours he began to improve. Today he is as healthy a child as parents could wish for."—MRS. B. J. JOHNSTON, Linton, Miss. For sale by all druggists.

RESULT IN DOUBT IN MISSISSIPPI

Latest Returns Indicate Election of Vardaman As Senator.

HE LEADS WILLIAMS 58 VOTES

On Official Returns from 78 Counties and Estimated Majority in the Six Remaining Counties—Will Require Official Canvass to Decide Contest.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 3.—The latest returns from the Senatorial primary in Mississippi make it appear doubtful as to whether Williams has won the election over Governor Vardaman. These figures, which are unofficial, give Vardaman the election by fifty-eight votes. They are made up from the official returns of seventy-eight counties, and the estimated majority in the six remaining counties.

Yesterday John Sharp Williams was claiming his election by 25,000 majority, but the backwoods counties had not been heard from and these showed Vardaman a decided favorite. So late as last night at 10 o'clock Williams was claiming his election by 6,000, but this morning conceded the contest in doubt.

It was in the rural districts that Vardaman showed his greatest strength. His views regarding the railroads, railroads, and corporations made him a favorite with the radical element of his party, while the conservatives in the city were almost solid for Williams.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Senate Disagrees to House Amendments To Prohibition Bill.

Atlanta, Aug. 3.—After more than [illegible] spent in an effort Thursday morning by certain opponents on the prohibition bill to tack on amendments to the amendments which had been passed by the house, the senate concurred in the amendments of the house without changing a single provision of the measure.

The bill will, however, have to be returned to the house before it is sent to the governor because Mr. Bell of Fayette, in designating the date in his amendment to the bill which is the house, made reference to the printed bill instead of the original engrossed, and referred to the date which he should have referred to as the "date." An amendment introduced by Senator Knight, which will be concurred in by the house, corrects this error. When the error is thereby approved by the house it will be immediately engrossed, and sent to the governor for his signature.

By unanimous consent the house took up and passed the "clean sheet" bill introduced, of Macon. Mr. Hall explained that the bill was introduced at the request of the Travelers' Protective association of Georgia.

"What if a drummer goes to a hotel at midnight, is the proprietor compelled to change the sheets, pillow cases and the like at that hour?" asked Mr. Hall. "He is," replied the author. The bill was passed by a vote of 92 to 21. Mr. Hall then gave notice of a reconsideration.

Coincident with the pure food law going into effect Aug. 1, the general agriculture committee of the house reported favorably the bill by Messrs. Taylor, of Sumter, and Martin, of Elbert, calling for a pure drug inspector to see that only the purest are sold in this state.

JAPS ARE ACTIVE.

Busy Making Sketches of Fortifications and Harbors.

New York, Aug. 3.—Four American school teachers who have arrived here from the Philippines via Asia and Europe, brought tales of the activity of the Japanese.

The American teachers were W. C. Mayer, of Kents, Kans.; C. H. McKee, of Indiana, s.; H. D. Fisher, of Hunter, Okla. and E. M. Ellis, of Greenville, Tenn.

Wherever they stopped in India, or other possessions, they declared they found the Japanese busily engaged in making sketches of fortifications and harbors.

SERMONETTES

BY J. MARVIN NICHOLS.

The whimperings of many a lousy cur would be hushed forever if only a bone would come his way.

I know some amen corner saints who could write a howling book on "How to Shave Without a Razor."

The most serious and delicate questions of life are the sort that lead us apart from the rabble—and we decide alone.

Some men survive just because they are owned. So does the donkey that pulls a scavenger around in the moonlight.

For God's sake! How can you content yourself by being a "rubdown" in somebody's stable, or a "jockey" on somebody's track?

I'll take a wildly riotous sensation every time in preference to the indefinite hiatus of the mossback. Won't you, parson,

In these springtime days one wonders if fishing makes the liar, or if only the liars fish. It is about time for the fish-story tale to begin the rounds.

A big majority of otherwise intelligent people would not know themselve if they were not humbugged and flimflammed at least once a year. What fools we are!

Go shy of the fellow that grooms his lips for one endless guffaw, and be wary of her who primps her lips for one continuous snigger. Life is not a huge joke. The fellow that sees it in that light is the joke himself.

Having yourself always been true, it is almost utterly impossible to keenly appreciate the real helplessness of one who suffers the remorse of the faithless. There is no pain quite so terrible. And sometimes we are called to share that grief.

Wonder if we have come to the age of the literary bellhop? That is to say, the age when books are made for the market more than for the intellect—when an author is more famous for royalties than words. Shades of the past—the days when really great men, in utter unconcern for gold, sat in coffee-houses and depated over their cups the pabulum that would feed an intellectual world for ages. The authors of the present day are like comets whose mighty blaze will shortly disappear to come no more. We are producing no immortelles. Thought has the canker of gold about it.

If we knew all the truth our verdict might be so different. After all, the man who gives his verdict on questions of character at once constitutes himself judge and jury, but forgets that he is therefore a prisoner at the bar condemned. I never hear one of these "Hair-trigger" judges passing on character without thinking of the woman dragged before Jesus Christ. And that terrible verdict—"Let him that is without sin cast the first stone"—has been the court of last resort through all the ages. A man is never any better than the poor fellow he emasculates with his devilish criticism. I am pretty safe in saying that a fellow is always better than his critics.

There is no tie half so sacred or sweet as a secret between loving hearts. We just simply idolize the bosom in which we can hide our very heart and know it is safe from the vandals. The truth is, secrecy is the heart of love. In this region, devotion and the secret become one and the same thing. Love is born of the effort to keep things secret that are in common between two hearts. It repeats the story of richer depths in whispering so soft that only the one nearest heart can hear. The deadlier the secret the vaster the love and trust. And to betray that trust is to make a wound that can be forgiven but not effaced. I have never held much to the doctrine that we can forgive and forget—though I preach forgiveness.

I believe in the heart's affinity. Somewhere, wandering in the wide, wide world, there is a spirit—the complement of our own. We are born possessed of a distant ideal for whose perfect correspondence we spend our days in relentless search. And in some sweet hour, and from out our silent depths, there shall come a voice for which we have listened all those years. Out of the shadows some sweet hour there'll steal upon us the form and fashion of all we've ever dreamed. Like shadowy phantoms, dreading lest they shall fade like mist, we cling fondly to our ideal. Our affinities always approach with a footfall soft as an angel's tread. To hold them is to be happy; to ignore them is to weep forever. It were better to wait an age for one hour of perfect bliss than to have no joy at all.

Dorothy Dix will get her mead of praise from many a man. She speaks for thousands when she says: "Give me a flirt, give me a red-headed tartar, give me a bargain chaser, give me a woman who doesn't know whether an egg ought to boil two minutes or two hours, bring on your lecture-platform ladies, or your Lucrezia Borgias who are handy with the poison bottle, but, good Lord, deliver me from the woman who whines," says the man who is married to the woman who is a real good industrious complainer. "Yet my wife is continually informing me that if she had not married me—if she had only remained single, instead of being the domestic slave that she now is, tied down to groveling pursuits by a home and family, she would be soaring aloft in the blue empyrean of fame. Put a whining woman in the Garden of Eden, and she'd have all the animals kicking and biting and scratching at each other in five minutes. Marry a complaining woman and she'll turn matrimony into a howling desert before you can say Jack Robinson, and that's the reason that I say that the whiner is the most aggravating thing in married life."

A "DRY" AMERICA.

Jones Believe Every State Will Be Free of Liquor Traffic.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—"Every state in the union will, at a comparative early date, be freed from legalized liquor traffic."

The above statement was made by Charles R. Jones, chairman of the national prohibition committee. Mr. Jones bases his optimistic prediction on the action of Georgia in enrolling itself among the "dry" states on Tuesday.

"Winning of the battle for prohibition in Georgia is the opening gun of the final assault on the liquor traffic in all America," said Mr. Jones. "It is the direct result of the persistent and intelligent educational campaign throughout the nation."

The first effect of the Georgia victory, Mr. Jones thinks, will be felt in the other Southern states.

The prohibition leader is sure that the Republicans and Democrats will be fighting over the liquor question as their main issue at an early date, giving a back seat to the tariff and other matters.

FEUDISTS' BLOODY FIGHT.

Two Are Killed and One Is Injured in Kentucky.

Whitesburg, Ky., Aug. 2.—In a battle between the Fitzpatrick and Coeburn feudists, at Beaver Creek, Floyd county, Kentucky, Henry Holbert, a member of the Coeburn faction, and John M. Fitzpatrick, a member of the Fitzpatricks and reputed leader, were killed. Wilson Darrow, a Fitzpatrick sympathizer, was desperately wounded.

The feud started three weeks ago by the assassination of Andy Coeburn in the court house at Prestonsburg, Ky. Since that time three clashes have occurred.

LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED

Preparations For National Observance At Jamestown.

CONSTRUCTED BY UNION LABOR

John Mitchell, W. R. Hearst, Samuel Gompers and Other Labor Leaders of National Renown Will Make Addresses—Grand Parade.

Jamestown Exposition, Va., Aug. 2—Union labor has occupied a prominent place in the construction of the Jamestown Ter-Centennial from the beginning, and in fact this is the first exposition exclusively constructed by organized labor, and the excellence of the work attests the value of the organization in every particular.

It is proposed to make the Labor Day celebration at the Tri-Centennial the greatest event of the Exposition, and plans are already under way looking to that end. C. H. Perry, president of the Structural Building Trades Union; H. S. Scott, president of the Central Labor Unions of Norfolk and Tidewater, Va., and James M. O'Connor, special organizer of the Hotel and Restaurant Employee's Association and the B. I. L. of America, have been in consultation with the officials of the Exposition and a concerted movement from now on will be made to have this celebration an event of national importance.

It is expected that the program for this occasion, Labor Day, September 2, will include addresses by William R. Hearst, Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and others of note, while many special features will be added to produce a national union labor celebration of a magnitude never before equalled. There will be military parades of infantry, cavalry, artillery and National Guard; band concerts by the Imperial Band of the City of Mexico, the Exposition Band and many military bands. There will be parades of war path attractions, daring performances by aerial artists, brilliant electrical illuminations of buildings, grounds, fountains and harbor, and grand displays of fire works at night.

BILLS SIGNED BY GOV. COMER.

Honors for Women.

New York, Aug. 3.—The Marquise Cecile de Wentworth, the American artist, who painted the portrait of President Roosevelt which was exhibited in this year's salon in Paris, has returned to this country for a holiday, and has brought with her the picture of the president. The marquise is the only woman except Rosa Bonheur, whose works have been bought for permanent exhibition in the Luxemburg gallery, Paris. She and Rosa Bonheur are the only women painters who have been decorated with the cross of the Legion of Honor.

Alabama to Raise Shafts.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 3.—The senate has passed bills for monuments to the late Senator Morgan, who died a few weeks ago, and Jefferson Davis, first president of the confederacy. It has also indorsed a bill for monuments for the state at the national parks, providing for the expenditure of $25,000 a year to this cause. The Morgan monument is to take the only remaining place of the state in Statuary Hall, Washington, and will cost $15,000. The Davis monument is to have place on the capitol grounds and will cost $15,000.

Banker Takes His Life.

New York, Aug. 3.—Alosie R. Garzo, said to be a member of a wealthy family of bankers in Mexico City, has committed suicide in his boarding house in Brooklyn. Garzo, who was 28 years of age, came to the city four years ago. He was well recommended and was given a position as confidential clerk in the Stuyvesant Heights bank. His friends are at a loss to account for the tragedy as the man appeared to be in good health and contented.

Advance In Cotton Values.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 3.—When government report of 75.0 was posted on the local exchange at 11 o'clock Friday morning, there fas an immediate advance in values. The October option which stood at 12.22 just before the report was made, jumped to 12.48 on the first bid and then continued to advance steadily. There were similar advances on the other options.

Old Landmark Burned.

Decatur, Ala., Aug. 3—Taursday the old King place, corner of Oak and Bond streets, was destroyed by fire. It was owned by the A. Rantz brothers, and was occupied by Mrs. Lena Parsons. Household goods were a total loss, no insurance. The building was insured for $15,000. This residence was erected by Captain King in 1865, and was one of the old landmarks.

Little Girls Hook Aligator.

Fitzgerald, Ga., Aug. 3.—Two little daughters of Mr. L. O. Tisdel, while fishing in a pond just north of Fitzgerald, hooked a fish that was too large for their united efforts to land. Mr. Clare, who owns the pond, came to their assistance and found they had hooked an aligator which measured 6 feet in length as it lay on the bank after Mr. Clare had shot and rolled it out.

Savannah Brewers Will Make Effort to Protect Their Charters.

Savannah, Ga., Aug. 2.—A. S. Gingerella, president of the Savannah Brewing company, one of the leading industries of [illegible], said Wednesday that the companies will make a fight under their charters to carry on their business in Georgia.

Said Mr. Guggenheimer:

"We are going to protect our interests insofar as the law will do it. We are having the matter of the law governing charters carefully looked into, and will take such steps as our attorneys advise. We certainly do not expect to have our property confiscated if we can possibly prevent it."

AMERICANS SEEK SOUVENIRS.

Cut Bark from Tree Where Fairs Were Killed in France.

Paris, Aug. 2—A Matin correspondent reports that Americans are cutting away for souvenirs, the tree in France, where the Fairs were killed in an automobile accident.

The information came from a driver who was taking the correspondent to Evrax. While on the road the driver stopped and pointed to an elm tree and said:

"There is the fatal tree where the Fairs were killed. Every day I bring Americans here, and others come in motor cars. Nearly every one takes out a knife and carries off a morsel of the bark."

PUNITIVE EXPEDITION.

British Send Troops to Punish New Hebrides Natives

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 2.—The steamer Manakwa, which reached port Thursday from Australia, brought news of fighting in the New Hebrides.

In an encounter between the Hebrides blacks and a punitive expedition landed from the British cruiser Cambrian to avenge the murder of an European trader, the blacks killed one blue jacket of the landing party and one was wounded.

News was received from the Caroline group of the foundering of the trading schooner Charles and Ella, in a hurricane, Captain Warner and eight of his crew being drowned.

Monarchs to Meet.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—Emperor Nicholas will start on a cruise aboard the royal yacht Standart Thursday with the ultimate object of meeting Emperor William. Just where the two monarchs will meet is not known and it is supposed arrangements will be made by wireless telegraph when out to sea. Only the emperor's suite and ministers of marine and court will go on the cruise. The empress will remain at Peterhoff. It is believed here the meeting will take place Saturday or Sunday.

Forty Koreans Killed.

Washington, Aug. 2.—A dispatch received at the state department on Thursday from Consul General Thomas Sammons, at Seoul, Korea, says that forty Koreans were killed or wounded Thursday in a fight precipitated by the disarmament of the Korean army. The casualties on the Japanese side, the dispatch adds, were slight.

Two Victims of Fire.

Greenport, R. I., Aug. 2.—The plant of the American Fisheries company, at Promised Land, 18 miles east of this place, was destroyed by fire Wednesday. Two lives were lost and a third victim is in a critical condition. The plant was one of the largest of the kind on the Atlantic coast and the loss is placed at $500,000.
